WORK TOWARD OSCAR GLORY IN THE CHILDREN'S THEATER COMPANY OF CARY

Does your child have the acting bug? Would you like to have an outlet for your child to express him or herself? Then register for the Children's Theater Company of Cary. Teens in grades 6th – 12th grade will learn all aspects of theater both onstage and off. Students will be cast in roles by the director and rehearse until the performance. All members of the Company will participate onstage and work behind the scenes on sets, props, and costumes.

"Although this program requires a commitment, it is one that is very rewarding," says Katie Veto, Director of Communications and Marketing. "This program will inspire teens to be creative, challenge their memory, and help them become more confident speaking in front of an audience - all skills that will help them in school, their jobs, and in social situations."

The Children's Theater Company of Cary meets on Monday and Thursday evenings beginning October 4 – January 24 from 7:00 – 8:30 pm at the Kraus Senior Center, 441 W. Main Street, Cary. The actual performance will be held on January 25 – 26, 2008 at the Fox River Grove Middle School.
