

NEWS FROM THE TRAIL

Welcome to Session 7 of Camp ECHO! Everyone will participate in fun camp activities which include fort building, games, arts & crafts, eating s'mores, hiking, archery, all camp activities and more! This week's field trip will be at the Aquatic Center in Bartlett. Get ready to have some fun and please remember to pack a bathing suit and towel. On Tuesday, all of camp will participate in a 1-day special Halloween Event. There will be spooky fun for everyone and different stations to receive little goodie bags & prizes. Arrive in your costume and please make sure it is camp appropriate (absolutely no weapons allowed).

Below are a few important reminders about camp:

**ECHO Extreme will be traveling to Westmont Park District to participate in IPRA's Teen Camp Challenge, July 17, which brings teens together from the surrounding areas for a fun and rewarding experience. We will be eating lunch there so please pack a sack lunch on this day. ***Parents, you are required to complete a waiver form in order for your camper to participate in the event. Your camper will NOT be able to participate without the proper documentation! Please give the completed waiver to your camper's counselor as soon as possible! Campers will be leaving Fel-Pro RRR promptly at 8:30 am (drop off at 8:15 am) and will return to the Community Center around 3:30 pm.*****

**Please remind your campers that sharing personal belongings at camp is not allowed. This is how germs spread and we want all of our campers & staff to stay healthy. Also, please talk to your camper about ticks and tick prevention. While the staff do thorough checks everyday, it is a good idea to be checking at home too.

**To ensure that everyone has a positive camp experience, please review the "Camper Code of Conduct" form with your camper.

We are looking forward to a FANTASTIC week with all of you!
